BAY ST. OUIS, MISSISSIPPI, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1922.

Bay St. Louis should join the Coast forces in fighting the proposed Mississippi river spillway below New Orleans. This plan if adopted would mean death to the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Our Kiwanas, Rotary or Chamber of Commerce (?) organizations should get busy.

They were joined as they went their way by the men of Pascagoula and Ocean Springs and Biloxi. They met at Gulfport in a mass meeting that settled down to work. From that meeting they sped westward and held other meetings at Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian.

They were working for the com-pletion of the Old Spanish Trail. Americans live their poetry these days, instead of reading and writing it so much. These men talked of bond issues and concerted action. They devised messages to Congress-men and Senators and State Highway Commissions and Governors and National Highway Associations. They were intensely practical. Not one but would pride himself on his practical efficiency.

Development of the rice industry that would follow would more than pay the cost of constructing the canal system.

Would Help Rice Fields. Reopening former outlets on the west side of the Mississippi river would carry off large quantities of water and put it where it could be utilized to advantage. Bayou Lafourche is an illustration of what could be doke. The construction of locks and a spillway at Donaldsonville would reopen that stream to navigation and supply water for rice irrigation. It is well known that there are hundreds of thousands of acres of land at the lower end of Bayou Lafourche too wet for sugar cane, but which would make the best rice lands in the world.

ON THE ROAD.

Common sense should prevail at all times on the part of the auto driver. The great danger on the road is in pasing another either when meeting one or overtaking one on the highway. It is here that special attention should be given to driving. One Bay St. Louis auto driver whose experience covers several years said to us a few days awo in speaking of this subject:

"It's not only a serious breach of motoring etiquette but also a viola tion of the laws of a majority of the States to speed up and attempt to race a car which has signalled its intention of passing on the left of you Too many drivers appear to consider this a challenge to a test of speed that they must uphold the honor of their machine by stepping on the gas and tearing along at 10 or 15 miles an hour faster than they had been going. This is responsible for a number of accidents usually to the car on the outside which is prevented from getting back on its own side of the road, and is liable to a collision with a machine coming from the opposite direction.

"The moment a horn is sounded behind you, draw as far as possible the right without endangering your own car, and let the other fellow drive past. He may have a good reason for his haste. But, even if he hasn't, he isn't issuing a challenge to race. He is merely giving one of the signals of the road that is recog nized by law. And he is entitled to have his wishes complied with."

BRIGHTER SKIES.

The return to the mines of thous ands of workers and a better understanding between railroad operators and their men has done much to bring about more pleasing conditions with are moving in every section, and farmers are again getting their hands on some ready money. As a result the residents of towns and cities all over America are feeling the change and business generally is stepping forward at a good pace. Big city dailies note a heavy increase in advertising, which means that the peo ple are commencing to do their fall buying, and these advertisers are anticipating an excellent fall and winter business. There is no better bar ometer of a town than the advertising columns of its newspapers. the merchants are alive, and after their share of the business, the newspaper columns show it. And if the advertising of local merchants is by small parts, the mail-order houses are quick to note it and quick flood that community with their catalogues. All of which is respectfully offered merchants of Bay St. Louis for their careful consideration.

A Pramph for Value

TN the past two months Firestone has built and marketed more tires than in any similar period in its history.

This steadily increasing public preference is proof of the recognition by car owners of the greater values offered by Pirestone. It is a tribute to Pirestone men-all stockholders in the company all actuated by the operating principle of Most Miles per Dollar.

The high average performance of Firestone Cords is without equal in the annals of tire making and is reflected by the general tendency to specify Rirestone for hard service. Taxicab and bus lines, buying tires by the mile, are universally equipping with Pirestone Cords.

There are many reasons for the high quality of Firestone tires but chief among the special manufacturing processes are double gum-dipping, thus eliminating internal friction by insulating each cord strand, and air-bag cure, insuring a well-balanced and perfectly shaped product.

Don't speculate in tires—you will find the right combination of price and quality in Firestone. Come in and let us tell you about the service these Cords are giving other car-owners whom you know.

THE FAVORITE CHILD

BY FRANCES A. GRAY

TT WAS the one unmarried member of our little group who quite innocently started the discussion. Something had been said about Hortense and her children and Grace remarked, "Isn't little Jack Hortense's favorite child?"

Sentimental Mother was shocked. "My dear," she exclaimed reproachfully. "no mother worthy of the name loves one child more than another! It's impossible for a mother to have a favorite among her chil-

But the Practical Mother, as usual, brushed aside mere superficialities. "Nonsense!" she retorted. "It is impossible that any woman who has more than one or two children should not have a favorite, even if she never admits the fact to herself. Within one family the children will often differ very widely in natural disposition. temperament—in every possible trait. If a mother has several children it is almost certain that there will be one among them who is naturally more congenial to her than the others? She paused, and then added with her surprising frankness, for she is one who openly admits what other people are apt to conceal and deny even to themselves, "Now my little girl is too much like me for us to get along harmoniously. She is quick and highstrung too, and, frankly, she often gets on my nerves. But little Frank is exactly like his father—very calm and placid and easygoing, and I'm really much more fond of him."

"Middle" Children Neglected.

There is something undeniably true in the point of view of the Practical Mother. It is possible that in one of her children a mother may find a more themselves with evil things that they congenial and responsive nature than in any of the others. But the question is not whether it is natural for her to feel such a preference, but

THE KINDERGARTEN DE-VELOPS CHARACTER.

At the recent meeting of the department of superintendence of the National Education association, Superintendent H. S. Weet of Rochester, New York,

"Education for citizenship in this country makes a peculiar demand for the development of character qualities. If an approach to the American ideal means anything it means a growth in our appreciation of the fact that liberty is the right to do as we ought and not as we may wish. We believe in the kindergarten primarily because of its possibilities for beginning and effectively continua ing just this appreciation. Child instincts are dominant at the age of four. To the kindergarten. is entrusted the great responsibility and the most delicate task of so balancing self-expression and self-repression as to develop a human personality that is at the same time self-sufficient and yet helpful and co-operative."

affect her attitude toward her children so that the fact becomes noticeable to other people and even to the children themselves.

In large families, we frequently see parents who give a certain prestige and power to the eldest, permitting him to dictate to the whole family. Even more frequently we see parents. but especially mothers, who favor the youngest child, granting him greater consideration though expecting less from him than from the others, in short, petting him all through her lifetime. "Middle children" are seldom the recipients of extra favors unless in the case of an only girl or an only boy in a family of the opposite sex. I recall one little incident of a stepfather of one girl and five boys which I thought quite touching. He had a beautiful book which they all wanted very much but which they refused to own together. Naturally, he was uncertain to whom he should give the book, but finally, handing it to the third boy, he said, "I'm sorry I haven't a book for each one of you, but I think I'll give this to you, Harry. You aren't the oldest and you aren't the youngest and you aren't the only girl, so you don't get many extras." Then, pattin him on the shoulder, he added with u smile, 'Besides, I was a middle child myself."

Partiality Should Be Avoided. Parents should watch very carefully to avoid partiality, for if they do not the moment is sure to come when the children will discover it. As soon as any such partiality becomes evident, the favored child is apt to become "spoiled," and the seeds of that ugly quality of jealousy are sown in his sisters and brothers.

A child's nature should be allowed to unfold in the sunny atmosphere of love and trust. By studying his needs, parents can help to bring out the best in him, thus forestalling that coldness and lack of sympathy which we regret to see between parents and those adult children whose attitude toward life is embittered because, when they a dough to roll, adding two teaspoon- the white of egg when beating it. were young and affectionate they fuls of baking powder Roll, cut and were subjected to the chilling effect aprinkle with sugar. He has had mine operators together to talk over coal prices and conditions, and there have also been conferences of leading manufacturers. Now, since he hasn't a real. honest-to-goodness dirt farmer in his cabinet, why not call into conference a number of REAL farmers not men who own farms and live in the city, but men who actually live on and cultivate farms? Such a conference would be worth something to every citizen of this nation, because in a large way every citizen is dependent upon our farmers. There are enough importafit matters needing adjustment to make such a conference worth while, and no one has any means of knowing just how much benefit might come out of it. We are not trying to tell the President his business. But we kan't believe he would make a mistake if he called a conference of farmers and got their views on present conditions and their opinions as to how those conditions could be bet-

And a brilliant patch o' yellow moss,
That covered most the ground.
All o'er the shaky fences, The honeysuckles bloomed; Halfway to the heavens blue, Giant box-woods loomed. Beside a pic'yune rosebush, I'd sit upon a stool, And dream and think the strangest things-Such precious time I'd fool! I didn't write my thoughts down then, 'Cause I was too young, you see; But, I stored up heaps o' memories As pleasant as can be,

The blended perfumes of the flowers,
The humming birds and bees

Filled my childish mind with thoughts, And feelings such as these! Straightway 'neath the arbor,
And thru' the squeaky gate,
I'd steal to dream all o'er again,

Till I'd find it growing late. While old Sol would be sinking, l'd feel so full o' happiness, I'd almost think aloud!

The marriage of Miss Lillian Gertrude Guerra and Mr. John E. Harris was an interesting event of Wednesday, at 7 o'clock in the evening, at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Clinton Reed, on Elmwood Drive, in Boulevard Park. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. Father Horton, of Sacred Heart Church, was witnessed by relatives and numbers of their friends. The house was handsomely decorated in ferns, palms, beautiful bastes, holding pink and white asters carrying out the color scheme. The ceremony was performed before and improvised altar banked with palms and lighted with pedestal candelabra. Preceding the ceremony, "At Dawning," by Cadman, and "O Promise Me," by DeKoven, was sung by Mrs. Samuel Ulrich Green, accompanied by Miss Edwina Wilson, who also played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The CAPITOL PETROLEUM COMPANY has THIRTY-NINE (39) PRODUCING WELLS in this Field and is constantly drilling others. These are Shallow Wells and the Production from these is small; but they are inexpensive to drill and the large number of wells represent considerable production over the period of a month. This Oil is all BEING MARKETED at $3.50 per barrel and makes a nice monthly income.

RANGER FIELD.

A rig and material for the drilling of a well on the 2,000 acres owned by the CAPITOL PETROLEUM COMPANY in the Ranger District has been assembled and work is rapidly progressing preparatory to spudding in. This is a PROVEN FIELD and the average production of wells here is in excess of 100 Barrels per day. This is a new venture for the Company and the plans have been so carefully prepared for operation here that success in this field is assured.

"THE PRESENT"

To date CAPITOL PETROLEUM COMPANY has FORTY-FIVE (45) SHALLOW WELLS producing OIL IN THE UNITED STATES, together with the TWO (2) SHALLOW WELLS IN MEXICO and the NATURAL GAS WELL IN KANSAS, making it a going concern, with several new wells under way of completion at Peter and Carson County, in addition to the wonderful Mexia Field-with lease holdings scattered in various proven fields of Texas.

Senator Vardaman Favors Leasing Muscle Shoaks to Henry Ford. Some days ago, hearing of statements published to the effect that he was opposed to the government contracting with Henry Ford for the lease of the Muscle Shoals nitrate plant. Senator Vardaman gave out the following interview, which elaborately quotes from his writings in Vardaman's Weekly on the subject:

"My attention has been called statements published in the press to the effect that I am opposed to the government contracting with Henry Ford for the lease of the Muscle Shoals nitrate plant

"This statement is erroneous, because I have favored Mr. Ford's proposal in preference to that of any other man or group of men. I have repeatedly stated my position on this question. In Vardaman's Weekly, Dec. 8. 1921, I wrote an editorial in favor of Ford's proposal under the title of 'Miracle to Be Wrought at Muscle Shoals.' I said in part: "I do not know just how Ford is going to carry out his wishes, but I am in hopes he will get Muscle Shoals since the government will refuse to operate it. I believe that Mr. Ford is an altruist as well as a pretty sensible car builder. I think his purposes are for the good of mankind, and I am willing to give a man a chance who thinks and feels as he does. But these miserable trusts and combinations of capital will do anything in the world to make money, blast Ford's reputation and damn the whole human race for a dollar.'

"On April 20, 1922, I again endorsed Henry Ford's proposal and published an article from the Manufacturers' Record about Mr. Ford and his intentions if given Muscle Shoals. "I have said some uncomplimentary

Fordson Often Does More In a Day Than Six Horses

The Fordson substitutes motors for muscles.

The Fordson substitutes tractor wheels for the legs of man and horse.

The Fordson takes the burden off flesh and blood and puts it on steel.

It allows the farmer's energy to be devoted to management, and not merely to operation. It gives him time. It cuts his producing costs.

There's a big story of savings made possible by the Fordson. Let us tell you. Write, phone or call.
